“ We were so sad to hear of Mrs. Mary's passing. One of the highlights of living in our little cul-de-sac was having Mrs. Mary live across the street. She was a happy, warm, loving lady and we will never forget her. Sending our prayers to all of the family.
Sincerely,
Eric and Shelly Madison

“ We lived next to her and my children adored Mary. I remember how worried they were when we found her when she fell and broke her hip walking the dogs. My kids thought she hung the moon! She was such a bright and happy person. We loved her so much! Praying for the family.

“ Mary Wardlaw is my aunt, as young children she spent weekends with me, on Saturday nights we would stay up late and watch Charlie Chan a mystery show. When my mom (Vera Gilreath Williams) bought me something she always bought Mary something to. Those days were good days.

“ Miss Mary (Mawy, to her good friend Michael) was a wonderful, playful, loving soul who will be greatly missed. I will cherish the memories of her and her "bestie" playing in the dirt together, throwing rocks in the ditch, or just running down the road together, him shouting "Faster, Mawy!" and both giggling. The 75 years that separated them were never noticed by either of them. Our deepest condolences go to her family, along with a little envy that you got to love this sweet soul longer than we did.
