“ I will forever be grateful for the time I had with Matthew, that Christmas with him made it everything Christmas should be. I will always remember Matthew.

“ I remember the July 4th gatherings and cookouts when Matthew enjoyed being with the family so much. He was always a welcome part of social events. I'm happy to have known him. Blessings to you and yours as you deal with his transition to his Spiritual Life.

“ Rodney and Becky sorry for your lost, but happy for Matthew for he is back with his mom and dad, but I know it not easy to lose a love one and seems you and my wife has had your share of love ones going home to Jesus this year. One thing for certain through is, we have the assurance that we will be with them again someday and they want be that frail little sick person that we told goodbye. I want you to know that you and Becky along with all the family is in our prayers because we know all to well how hard it is to give up your parents but then have to start giving up your siblings and that seems even harder because you don't have mom and dad to lean on. My wife has one more sister who could go anytime then that will be all her immediate family except for nieces and nephews, me and her boys so she knows death and hurt and she said each time she gives one up she just try's to remember that its just for a little while and they will all reunite. God bless you all, didn't get to knowing Matthew as much as I do you all but what I saw of him was a blessing to me. He was a very blessed young man to have all the care and love he got from his family.
