“ So many memories sis, cant share just one. I guess just sitting on your porch drinking coffee and talking about life, motherhood and hopes and dreams for our kids will always be among my most treasured memories of you. I miss you so much.

“ Mimi you have always been everyone's rock. Your heart was so big and full of love, and you could always share that love equally. I could always go to you about anything, and I miss our long talks on the porch that always ended in laughter, no matter the topic of the conversation. Your Izzy loves and misses you so much. No matter how much it hurts I have reassured her that you are in heaven watching over everyone. Love you mimi. You will remain in our hearts forever.

“ When I was about twelve, I ran away from my parents to your house. No hesitation, no questions--you fed me and your kid fried okra and asked what needed to be done for me to feel safe and were immediately willing to take me in. My parents, ironically, chose as best as they possibly could have when making you my godmother. I love and miss you.

Mav you just sit up there in heaven and watch over Johnny and ever now and then pop Old man on the side of his head. I love you my sweet friend.
