“ I literally just this second found this out. I moved to Ohio 11 goin on 12 years ago. And i just haven't been able to come visit in quite some years due to finances. Im so heart broken my last Grandparent has gone to heaven. Rest in Heaven Papaw i know you're in a much better place, pain free and i know you're ecstatic that you're with Granny, and you're children. Aunt Helen, Uncle Ray and my Mom. So i know you're happy..... However you're terribly missed and forever missed n loved. I love you Papaw and im so sorry i wasn't around after i moved away. Love you Papaw RIH

“ Unfortunately I didn't get to spend much time with Uncle Max. My part of the family (Clay Brock) moved to Alabama when I was very young yet I still remember the visits. Wish with all my heart I could have been there for the family today.

“ I think my grandpa was like 65 years old and my cousin Timmy and I (Chris) made him mad. I think I was 14 when this happened. Papaw chased us around the house several times didn't have a clue 65 year old man could run that fast, but he could. We hopped under the bed and my room and papa came in there with a switch and lifted the bed up with one hand and gave us a spanking that the only time I remember that man ever getting after us like that.
