“ *Margaret and family
So sorry for your lose. Maxie will be missed by many. I have always considered Maxie to be a friend even though our path's did not often cross, always thought the best of him. I will not be able to make it to the funeral home but did not want you to think that our prayers are not with you all and that I do not feel your lose. I do believe that if Maxie could let you know that He would tell you that there was no more sickness or pain and that your temporary lose was heaven's gain. We will continue to keep you in our prayers .

“ If it wasn't for the Stones I would have probably starved to death in college. I never saw Mr. Stone when he wasn't working...always on the tractor or tearing something apart. The man could fix anything. He would tell some of the funniest jokes and he laughed so hard at the end of each one it was hard not to laugh with him. He made a wonderful family and through that I was given a best friend in his son, Allen. You will truly be missed Mr. Stone. I have no doubt that you are beside the Lord himself.
