“ Please allow me to express my deepest condolences to all Melba's family Harp and Castlesberry alike. I have very fond childhood memories of Melba, visiting with her Rising Fawn family. Her smile was infectious, making everyone around her feel loved and welcomed. So sorry for your loss. Gail Dean Mulkey

So sorry for your loss, what a wonderful time she must be having in heaven no more pain walking the streets of Gold, I loved this woman I worked with her at RES for year's, she sure loved her family especially those grandkids, she talked about them all the time, she was so much fun to work with she made us laugh all the time she was so much fun!!! We are sad I know, but don't worry we will see her again in heaven. Melba I love you dearly 💕 thank you for all the good times and making me laugh till I cried,, give my mother a hug, will see y'all soon. Praying for all the family I know how hard it is to but remember the good times and know she is with her savior and this is not goodbye, praying for God's peace that only God can give. Love to all of you 💕🙏

“ Aunt Melba made my teen years better by listening to me and advising me. Not to say I always listened but her love and kindness is something I have always remembered. I loved going to her house and will cherish the memories.
