“ Sue and her husband Howard were my friends for 60 years. Sue enjoyed camping which we did lots of in our younger years. We were next door neighbors when we were young and had lots of activities together, we all gathered at Sue's house on the weekends because that's where the fun and good cooking was. Sue was a die hard Alabama fan and enjoyed watching them beat Georgia almost every time they played. We moved away when we got older but kept in touch thru the years. I will always think of my dear friend Sue with a smile.
