“ I remember Melba from years ago as a bus driver for my children. Later on I met her thru marriage and Church. She taught me a lot throughout her cooking. Rather it was short cuts to cooking making meals go further to teaching me how to cook some of these. Melba was always there for anyone meting hers . I well remember after church she would cook meals and the family would meet at her home. No matter how many you, was always welcomed with a loving heart. RIP my sweet friend. I have such sweet memories of you.

“ I knew Melba through the Georgia Peach Quilt Guild and she was always cheerful, open and willing to help. I know she was a rock for her family, church and community and will be greatly missed. But most importantly I know her as a sister in Christ who has everlasting life.
