“ Even though it has been a long time since I have seen you, I can vividly remember when you, Aunt Blanche, uncle Jeff, and Donald would come over for Thanksgiving or when we would visit you all in Georgia. Your laughter is so contagious and I am laughing/smiling now as I type this out thinking of the memories when you would laugh almost uncontrollably. Also every time I eat apple pie, I think of Aunt Blanche, you and Jeff!! You will be missed. I Love you!

“Missy you will be forever our little sister. I am so very sorry to have lost you so soon. I am thankful to know I will see you again. Your heart was so big and compassionate. There is no telling how many people you have helped along life's way. You were also a force to be reckoned with when need be. When you were young you really gave me a hard time when I babysat for Aunt Blanche. But when you were older you apologized repeatedly for doing it. I understood why you did it. You loved Sherry and expected her but when I walked through the door you were upset and then acted out. I remember that if anyone dared to mess with Jeff your little brother they would have your fury to deal with too. You were such a little lady when you were at the Rainbow padgett, in your pretty evening gown. But at heart you were a tomboy. When Carlos brought his family up to visit Mom and Sherry you could not wait to get little Rebecca (not walking yet), and hold her little hands and let her try to walk. That babygirl really thought she was doing something. If anyone had you as a friend they were very fortunate. You were loyal, generous and kind. You loved to laugh and could get us all laughing with you. There are a thousand memories I could share. I will miss you so much until I see you again. I love you Missy.”
