“ Michael, I will always cherish all the good times we had. So many fun nights out on the the town, at our houses and many fishing trips. I regret how far we grew apart over the last two years, but I'll always love and remember you! RIP and fly high!

“ Where to even start..? It all started with little league ball. We first started really hanging out at Jill's after school. Spending our days at Green Acres hanging out and years later hanging out throwing darts in the garage with Adam and Cody and Chin over on Steele Rd. When we were hang there were always smiles on our faces and good times being had. I'll never for get that chuckle that was basically your signature laugh. Man I'm gonna miss you. I know it had been several years since we lost contact but there was never any love lost. I loved you like a brother and am heartbroken. The times and experiences we all shared as " The Click" will live on forever through your spirit. We love you and will see you again one day Hujanator
