“ I have fond memories of Mike and his sisters. Our dads worked together at Happy Valley Farms for years and was close friends. When Jim passed my dad was devastated and never the same, he missed his dear friend. Mike was always just a typical boy chasing his sisters and me and my sister. Thinking back he was a sweet boy and I am sorry I never knew the man he became. I am sorry for his passing. Him and his family will be in my prayers.

“ Jordan, I am so sorry for your loss. I talked with Mike last year after April's service and was surprised that he remembered who I was, at a time in my teens when I needed a place to stay he and Shelia invited me into their home and they were really just newlyweds, that has always endeared me to Mike, he didn't know me but welcomed me anyway. Please know your family is in my thoughts and prayers...Carla

Aunt Carla I didn't see this until just now but that's a very sweet story I never heard about my granddaddy. Thank you for sharing this.
