“ He loved my children dearly especially my boys Gavin and Jaxon. When Jaxon was a newborn he napped with Mike as we visited, he always looked forward to Jaxon's visits. Thankful for his kindness to all my children and grateful that my children left an impression on him as well. Hope that He is resting peacefully in God's arms now. To his loving wife Victoria and all his children we appreciate all that you have done for us and we cover you in prayers, love during this sorrowful time. May GOD comfort and give peace to you all. None of us ever really want to think about death but unfortunately it is certain, please take a minute to ask yourself where you are going when you die. Where we spend our eternity is most important
With much love,
Kristi and Jaxon
