

Mildred Crowder

February 24, 1937 - November 27, 2023

Our loving wife, mother, and Grandma, Mildred Crowder, went to be with the Lord the early morning of November 27th. She was a fierce and devoted lover of her family. She was the youngest of the Hammontree family of 9 children. She was married to the love of her life, Reynolds Crowder for 67 years where she lived most of her life in the Chickamauga area. She was the creator of Mildred's Weeds, which gave her notoriety in the area for her beautiful creations she made out of items picked and dried from nature. Her laugh and humor were infectious, making her a bright lite to be around. She enjoyed camping, picnicking, watching movies, and playing Rook with her grandchildren. The time she spent with her grandchildren brought her so much joy. She enjoyed traveling with her family and was always up for a ride. She is survived by her loving husband, Reynolds Crowder and their two children, Brant Crowder (Meredith) and Gay Crane (Mike). She had 4 grandchildren.

Mikayla Reid (Ben), Bailey Crowder (fiancé, Thomas Farrar), Lily Crane & Sydney Crane. She was preceded in death by seven of her eight siblings. She is survived by one remaining sister, Edith Boyd.

We want to invite family and friends to remember her at Wilson's Funeral home, Chickamauga GA, on December 7, from 5:00-8:00 PM.

“ I truly enjoyed sitting with Mildred at an local estate sale, listening to her stories of she and her family. She told me of her business with Mildred's weeds. I didn't get to know her very long, but I'm so thankful the Lord had us cross paths.
