“ Many years ago, before Alzheimer's had affected her mind, I was talking to my mother-in-law about how she raised her children and what principles guided her. Her deep faith was evident in her responses. She told me that as a daily practice she would pray. She prayed at night when her children had gone to bed. Her prayer was a mother's plea. She said she asked God to keep her on this earth until her children no longer needed her. She told me she prayed that prayer every evening. It touched my heart then, and it continues to make me grateful to have called her my mother as well.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you on the loss of you sweet and humble mother. Mildred was so kind... a real jewel of a lady. I cherish even more now the time I got to spend with her and the stories she told me about her childhood days growing up in Whitwell. She will be missed greatly by many, but will remain in our hearts until we meet again... in that promise may we all find comfort ❤️
