

Mildred J. Sisk

March 14, 1933 - October 31, 2018

Mildred J. Sisk, 85 of Rossville, took her heavenly flight on Wednesday, October 31, 2018 to be with her Lord and Savior. She was surrounded by her children and family. She was a member of Union Avenue Baptist Church, later attended Revival Worship Center.

Her faith in God was steadfast and unmovable. She was a prayer warrior. She gave to her children the best gift in life. She taught them about Jesus and the importance of salvation for she knew at the end of life's journey that was all that mattered. Her favorite verse in the Bible is Psalms 91... I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: My God; in Him I will trust. With long life will I satisfy him and shew him, my salvation. She enjoyed reading her Bible, crocheting, gardening and spending time with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She will be missed by those who knew her.

She is preceded in death by her husband William Carl Sisk; Parents, Mary and Leslie Goforth; infant brother; and sister Myrna Bannister.

She is survived by her children, Carl (Linda) Sisk of Red Bank, Tennessee, Ken Sisk of Harrison, Tennessee, Daryel (Rhonda) Sisk of Rossville, Georgia, Anita (Danny) Russell of Rossville, Georgia; Grandchildren Darren, Andy and Jessica Russell; great-grandchildren, Gavin, Maggie, Blake, and baby Darren.

The funeral service will be held on Friday November 2, 2018 at 12:00 Noon in the chapel of the funeral home with Pastor Brenda Woods officiating.

Interment will follow at Tennessee-Georgia Memorial Park.

The Family will receive friends on Thursday November 1, 2018 in the parlor of the funeral home. Carl Sisk, Ken Sisk, Daryel Sisk, Darren Russell, Andy Russell, Danny Russell and Gavin Hope will serve as pallbearers.

The family would like to say a “special thanks” to Tapestry Hospice, Cathy Worley, Dr. William Horton, Brittany O’Toole, Misty Allman, Dianna Evett, and Brandi Hicks for the love and support given.

“ A mother-in-law whose faith in God was unmovable. A very wise woman who had much wisdom. I enjoyed her coming to the house and just talking about the Bible and what all God had done for her. Those times I will miss . What an honor to have had the prevledge of helping take care of her. Praying for my family.
