Four daughters Elizabeth Mathis, Jessie Rivera Lopez and Heather Mathis all of Rock Spring, GA and Alisha Hudson of Dayton, IN. He was a loving grandfather to 15 grandchildren. He also leaves behind a common law wife Sheila Strange and the mother of his children ex-wife Theresea E. Mathis. One sister Barbara Chapman of Rock Spring, GA and two brothers John Mathis and (Tammy) Mathis and Shawn (Shelly) Mathis all of Florida. He also leaves extended family.

The man I remember from my childhood was either on the job working for his family or in his home with those same people. I remember the man who bought boxes of fruit, all those years ago, for not only his own family but those of relatives and friends. I remember the man who used to can in the kitchen with my mom and their friends all weekend. The man who put up a huge quilting frame on our living room ceiling for mom and others to use. The man who crafted right beside my mom making Disney jumpers and crayon aprons to take to the flea market on the weekend when he was out of work. While we didn't always get along, we choose to remember you for the man you were. I'm proud of the example you set for your children and those around you who were paying attention. It is something I hope we are trying emulate in some way each day._ We are thankful for the time we had with him and the time he had with his grandchildren.
