“ Dear Dad,

You gave me so much and I am thankful that you lived long enough for me to figure it out. I am grateful for being able to tell you that I loved you and that you told me you loved me, too. You taught me so much about ethics, psychology, economics, humor and generosity and yet never believed that you did enough. Thank you, Dad, for being you.

Please know that I will continue your stories and jokes with much love.

I wish you were here now so you could ask me if I would like a o'possum sandwich. I would say, yes, with ketchup and we would both laugh.

I love you, Dad.
