“ I had a dream about Minnie last night, and had a feeling I should check for an obituary - I'm so thankful I was able to know Minnie, even it was just for a short time. She was always so sweet and never failed to put a smile on my face. My deepest condolences to you Joy.

“ Dearest Joy, it is with great sorrow that I send you my deepest feelings I that I send this to you words just don't fit when it comes to telling us about how much we love our moms and dads, and you have had all of them where you have been so sad, and had to go through the sadness of burying them I'm so sorry that I can't be there to hold your hand or to put my arm around you and tell you that everything will be OK because in Jesus is coming and you will see your mommy again and you will be able to hold her hand and you won't get tired and you will know that she is right there by you. Happy and talkative as she used to be. I remember all the good things she did for me. I will never forget them and now I get to show you the love that I had for her, and we will see her again with her beautiful black hair and her sparkling eyes and I love you so much Joy I will always be your dearest friend forever. God bless you, Joy hon post now

“ It was a pleasure to meet you and your family. Joy, you have the kindest and giving heart. I appreciate all the time and memories I keep now. Ms. Minnie had a way with words sometimes your ribs would hurt from laughing . She loved her precious JOY, every minute of every day. I grew close to Ms. Minnie even though it was only several months, but it was every day but one I had the privilege of seeing her. She will always be in my heart, and kindest family in my prayers. I will remember her most as my Little Lady at the end of the hall, to the left.

“ Dear Joy, Todd and family,
Sympathy and prayers for you at this time of grief.
“Aunt” Minnie was in my eyes a cute, petite and gentle lady. I was never around her very much through the years, but I have been blessed to see more of her in the last few years, and I am thankful for that.
I know she will always be missed, especially by her daughter.
Love and prayers,
Susan McCray Wemmer

Joy, your mother was so kind and sweet to me. I loved our conversations about the good old days and raising our children. She would pat my hand and ask me if I was getting enough rest, had I ate anything. If I wanted her to take her medicine she could easily be persuaded by a cup of black coffee. At least for most things. It did not take me long to get attached to her. I admired her for her wisdom and caring heart. I saw the love she had for family, especially Joy. It was blessing to have the opportunity to take care of her and get to know you. I will always have great memories of your mother.
