“ *In memory of my mother she was a great example to me I thank God for her every day so very thankful that God let us children have her for 93 years Our mother was a beautiful person inside and out she taught us a lot about life we have so many memories of her that will live on with us We know that she is with our Lord Jesus Christ and she is not suffering anymore I can't even imagine what she is seeing or what she may be doing but one day we will reunite with her what a day that will be Yes the days without her are tough but knowing that it will not be long until we see her again keeps me going on We will always love you Mother.
