“ Aunt Nancy, you will be missed more than you know. You were always full of life and laughter, you had a listening ear and godly advice. I will always remember you with fond memories. You were all about Jesus and were not ashamed of the gospel, you leave a legacy behind and a great one at that. Love you and love and prayers to all my family during this time. “ I'm at Nancy at Rachel's wedding. My wife and I had traveled from Florida to go to the wedding, representing our daughter Ashley who was Rachel's roommate at Lee University. Nancy walked right up to her table and said "Hi! I'm Nancy Chambers, Rachel's grandma! I know you from Facebook! Glad to finally meet you!" And she sat down at the table and talked to us and we just talked about Jesus and how much he means to us! And I had made a friend in Mawmaw! We became family and prayed for one another throughout the years! She was a true prayer warrior! One I relied on when I needed prayers answered! And now she's up in heaven, with her husband and her son and her Savior Jesus! Well done Miss Nancy, well done!
