“ The first memory I have of Aunt Nancy is when we would all go down to Granny Etta's for the holidays and I was sooo excited to eat her sweet potatoes!! (She made the best) Over the years as the families grew larger, the holiday dinners together faded away but, if I ever needed anything all I had to do was call. She was and still is loved by many and she will be missed.

“ There was never a time I didn't Mrs. Larmon. And she was the first teacher to paddle me. I'll never forget that. While she was out of the room me and another boy had our names put on the board as a joke. She came in before Scott could erase them. A girl, I don't remember who. Told her Scott had done it as a joke. She said I've known Mr. Parker and Mr. Jumper all their lives. So I know they've done something to deserve a paddling they didn't get. So I'll just go ahead and them them now. Then she told Scott the name taker to join us. She paddled us all. Then that night she called my dad(a lifetime friend) and told him. Yeah they got a kick out of it. Truth be told me and Brian probably deserved a paddling every day. She was truly a treasure to LaFayette. And anybody lucky enough to have her as a teacher was better for it.
