“ RIP little sister

I remember the day you were brought home from the hospital. I wanted mom and daddy to take you back and exchange you for a monkey. I didn't get my wish as everyone knows and you were a pretty good sister. We had many spats over the years but had each other's back if anyone dared to say anything about either of us.

Van will have plenty of greasy burgers and the others plenty of treats.

Seth, Shane, Nathan, Nick, Vickie, and Chris - I will always be available with a big ear anytime you guys want to talk.

Nancy, you are going to be greatly missed. Fly high dear sister until we meet again.

Brenda, I can't believe your sister has passed . I remember her nickname was critter when she was little, she always bring caterpillars and bugs home in her pockets when she went out to Play. I remember your parents from first Baptist church in vermilion. I think they were from Chattanooga,tn “ Nancy is forever in my heart!

Nancy was head-strong from the first time I met her and she became my best friend...just like that!

We made plans...and we juggled children, college assignments, and holding down jobs over the years.

We shared heartaches and tears losing parents, grandparents, sisters, brothers, husbands, and pets.

We shared in hardships and joy while raising our children, them graduating, going into the military, or off to college, marrying and having our grand babies!

We shared so much but then still not enough...

Nancy has left a an ache in my stomach and a profound absence in my life.
