“ Aunt Nancy was a beautiful person inside and out. My Mama, Dot, is her oldest sister. I love her very much. If we ever have another yard sale, it won't be the same without her asking me if I'm sure I want to sell something. She wanted to make sure I didn't want to keep it. The Bible tells us that to be absent from the body, is to be present with the Lord. One of these days, we will all be together, never to be parted again. ❤️

“ Momma was a beautiful woman but she was so much more and to so many. She was very strong, loving, and forgiving. I watched Momma through the years face hardships on her own and she handled them with grace. She is my Mother, my best friend, my strength, and my everything.

“ Things my Aunt Nancy taught me. That a woman can do anything a man can do. It may take us a little longer but we can do it. That when you shop in thrift stores you can find something you can decorate with peach colored flowers. And be sure to check labels and spend an hour in the shoe department. She taught me that 100 pairs of shoes isn't enough because there is always an outfit for them. She taught me that if you can't buy it make it. My Aunt Nancy was like a second momma to me. I'll never forget our long talks. She was a strong woman with the spirit of a warrior. A big heart. And a beautiful smile. I'm glad God made her my Aunt.
