“ My Momma , how do you describe her , Devoted wife , Mother , Grandmother , Friend ? Most people that knew her, would describe her as beautiful from the inside out !! She loved with every ounce of her being ! From caring for loved ones that were sick with illnesses or disease , serving at the VA clinic , donating blood , the PTA , the board at the community pool , editor for her school newspaper , sending cards to sick and home bound people at her church . Caring for her elderly neighbors , taking in family and friends . Loving her children without expectation , showing her grandchildren that they were the most special people on earth. Loving her husband , like they were on their first date , after over 50 years of marriage. She was always there for anyone in need without ever expecting anything in return . She met everyone with a smiling face and a kind word . Anyone that ever had the pleasure of meeting her and spending time with her left with the experience of feeling like her friend. Sunday , we will come together to celebrate her life , her passion , her love and her legacy. She would never want anyone to shed a tear , but would want them to be joyous that she will forever live on in the hearts of all who met and loved her !!
