“ Nanny, I miss you! I miss talking to you and I have a lot to talk to you about! You were always so easy to talk to and no one else compares which makes it hard to talk to anyone else! I love you!

“ Nanny there are so so many memories that I have of us that it would take up this whole page but there is one that sticks out in my mind all the time. One day when you were at our house, I was being smart mouthed to you and you asked me if I wanted some "hickory Tea" I had never heard of that before so my smart mouth said "yeah I'm thirsty go get me some" BOY did I regret saying that cause you came back with a HICKORY STICK AND WHIPPED MY LIL LEGS TO DEATH!! LOL Thank you Nanny I needed that!! And I would give anything if you were still here to whip my butt even more. I love you oh so much Nanny and now that you are in heaven I am sure you know just how much that is. My heart may never quit hurting and missing you while I am here on this earth without you but thanks to your teachings I know that I will see you again.

“ Nanny, I wish I had been living when you were little and learned to love like you did. I loved the old stories you used to tell me about the sack cloth dresses and one pair of shoes per year that you used to get. I loved all the stories about walking miles to school (one way) and how your mother would go without eating to make sure all 9 of you kids had something and how wonderful she was. Well, you were pretty wonderful too! I know you did without many times to make sure everyone else had plenty.

I know you remember the time I broke up with my boyfriend and I was real upset and my blood sugar wound up real high and I ran to you like we all did. Well, you took me to Hutcheson Medical Center ER and they were taking forever - No I.V., No water and No ice chips but that didn't stop my nanny. You cupped water from the sink in your hands and let me drink from your hands!!! I will never forget that to my dying day! You showed me so so much love over the years and I can only hope that I showed you at least half as much. I will love you forever and always and miss you even more. You always said that you adopted me and that I was yours and yours I will always be.

Love,
Your little Tracy

“ Nanny,
Do you remember when I was little how I would write Jesus lil letters and you would take them so that I would think he got them. Now I am doing that to you!! I hope you can hear me when I am speaking to you, I hope you can still feel my love and my arms that wrapped you so tightly to keep you warm in your last days here on earth. Nanny, I hope you know how much I love you and always will. I know in my heart that I will see you again there are no doubts about that. Because you taught me about God and his powerful love and that I can ask for forgiveness and he will forgive me. Because of you Nanny I am who I am and I want to thank you for that!! I love you Nanny!!!!

Love,
Your Lil Mandy

“ Well....theirs a lot to say. Nanny was always their for me through the bad times and good ones. She was the best Nanny I could ever have ...Love you Nanny from Ryan.

Ryan Marmet - August 23, 2016 at 09:20 PM

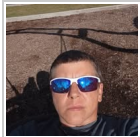

She loved you so much Ryan. She talked about you all the time and how much she missed having you at her house like when you were little. Love you buddy!!

Mandy Schooley - August 24, 2016 at 11:02 AM

Nanny was ALWAYS there for all her children & grandbabies/great grandbabies.. I miss her so much. She was definitely the best of the best nanny we couldve ever asked for. I love u nanny. Rest in peace

“ There are just not enough words to describe the love that Nanny gave to me and that I have tried so hard to return to her. I am truly heart broken and lost right now. I know that she would want me to be happy for her cause she is home now, but at the same time I just want to fly right up there with her so she can hold me again and tell me it's going to be ok and that the Lord will take care of it. I know Nanny and I am trying to put it in God's Hands but I also want to bury my face in your hands and I can't do that anymore. Nanny, I am so lost right now.
