“ My sister , my best friend. You were always there for me and my family. Like the time we took Cassie to UGA for band camp. We kept telling her she better stay out of the boys dorm. That night she called laughing that they gave her the wrong room. And we moved her into the boys dorm . When I called you we laughed so hard. Then the time you went with us to take Crystal to a lamb show in Ohio. You were going to help keep me awake . You did by snoring and making the radio get louder. Sis we love you and are going to miss you.

“ She was my sister since before 1967 when she married my brother Charles M. Summers. She had a wit about her that like no other. She loved hard, would defend earnestly and had a twinkle in her eye. I would go and stay with them as I was growing up and she was always so welcoming and loving. Heck of a scrabble and canasta player. I loved her laugh, her smile and how down to earth she was. I remember I teased her on how she said onion by putting a g in it. One time I teased her while she was helping my mom make her famous coconut cake from scratch. I said something and sat down, she looked at me and told me it was a good thing I sat down cause she was going to put her foot up my backside!!! Never teased her again. I admired her for the way she raised my nieces and nephew. She made them into the strong, loving, independent, adults they are. I am just heartbroken for them. Valerie, Chuck, Tonya and Amanda we are so very proud of you all and will miss her more than you know.

We are here for you!

“ I do not have the words. Mornings are hard and nights are the worst. I never imagined you were not going to make it through this. You are my rock, my mentor, my role model and my favorite mom ever! You have always been my first call when I am excited or upset; I wish I could call you now. I will miss you every day for the rest of my life. I aspire to be as wonderful and caring as you. I love you, mom. Rest in peace. We won't make you eat Mexican any more.
