“ I remember when I first got to know Nolan and Becky at the church, but mostly when I met him at the store when he was finding a home for Ocoee, his border collie. What a treasure she was to Mac and me. I remember his hard work, his love for his family, his faith in God, and the humility that defined his strength. How much we will miss the everyday presence of that strength!
Thank God for the reality of eternal life! Thank God that he has now joined the choir of saints who, as told in in the letter to the Hebrews, watch our progress, cheering us on in our journey. Remember us in your prayers!
