What a privilege it was to have known this fearless warrior. In this life, there are those whose courage sets the example for all of us. Olav was one of them. R.I.P., Olav - you earned it. Anne Adams

“ For several months Ollie and I were part of the same dining table group at Hickory Valley. I miss his tall tales, brusque kindness, medical knowledge and seeing him race through the parking lot on his scooter with Sir Henry on his leash. He carried a bottle of hot sauce with him and put it on practically everything he ate. He enjoyed good food - especially beef brisket (cooked like they do in Texas), chocolate cake and coffee.
