“ Aunt Opal was very special to me. She was a colorful character and like most Mitchells, quick witted with a mix of sweetness and delightful stubbornness. I think she'd chuckle at that. In the grand tradition of southern women, she could and would hug a neck like it was a long awaited home coming. I loved to sit and talk with her and listen to how she'd tell a story. I'll treasure and pass on the stories she shared with me, and I'll never forget how they were told in her voice. Rest in Peace, Aunt Opal.

I'm so glad she was my aunt. I have many good memories of her laughing and sharing family stories and such. She always had a little cat or dog she had taken in and we couldn't wait to see what she had. My boys always enjoyed seeing her. She will be so missed. My heart hurts but I know she is in a better place and not hurting anymore. Love you Aunt Opal!
