“ My wife and I both found Ora Lee Ayres to be a wonderful friend. She had a wonderful smile and we both enjoyed her company very much. We will miss her but are thankful that God let us get to know her. I know how empty a house can feel when someone you love has gone but, God is giving us with time the ability to go on ahead and to reach a point where memories will bring smiles, instead of tears. she loved Elvis and Ora Lea and my wife could talk for hours about Elvis. She enjoyed gospel music and could listen to it for hours. She will indeed be missed. but we're thankful that we had the privilege of having her as our friend.

“ Heaven gained a beautiful Angel Monday. I have a lot of great memories of OraLee but my favorite would be the week-end trips to Grandmorhers house in Ala. OraLee never refused to let me go and always treated me like one of the family. Of course I cant leave out the chocolate gravy and homemade biscuits she made us. She walways put a big smile on our face then. I loved her very much. I didnt see her as much the past few years but when i did she was always the same , smiling and telling something on Linda. R. I. P. My dear second mom. Ilove u.
