

Otis "Ed" Cregger Jr.

July 7, 1946 - January 1, 2016

Otis "Ed" Cregger, Jr., 69, of Ringgold, went home to be with his Lord and Savior on Friday, January 1, 2016. He was born in Marion, Virginia to the late, Otis and Faye Cregger, Sr. and lived most of his life in New Jersey before moving to the North Georgia area in 1998. He was of the Christian faith and was an Air Force Veteran having served during the Vietnam Era. He loved music, playing the bass guitar, enjoyed remote control model airplanes and was very proud of being an Amateur Radio Operator whose call sign was "NM2K". He was a loving and devoted husband, brother and uncle that will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Survivors include his loving wife of more than 46 years, Brenda Anne Cregger of Ringgold, GA; three brothers, Jerry Cregger of Max Meadow, VA, Gary Cregger of Wytheville, VA and Joe Cregger of Ringgold, GA; two nieces, Melissa & (Karl) Funer and Melanie & (Jim) Smith; great niece, Karrienne Funer; and great nephew, Jason Funer.

Services and burial will be private and there will be no visitation at the funeral home. Online guest book at www.wilsonfuneralhome.com. Arrangements by W. L. Wilson & Sons Funeral Homes, Fort Oglethorpe, GA.

“ Uncle “Head” always had a warm smile and open heart for me growing up. I sure enjoyed our talks and his jokes always made me laugh. While I never picked up a passion for playing the guitar I do know it was one of his. I am lucky to have two of his that I see everyday. Love you and miss you Uncle Head!
