“ My beautiful, beautiful friend Pam. I will miss her dearly. What a joy she was to all who knew her. Pam had such a wonderful sense of humor and a gentle demeanor. And could she turn on that Southern drawl and flash those bedroom eyes!! We met in 1978 while working at the Chattanooga Choo-Choo and then we both went to work at Salem Carpet Mills. Even after we worked at different locations, for more than twenty years we met for lunch regularly with other special friends. She loved, loved her Craig and Christi, and then glowed when talking of her grandchildren. Heaven has gained a jewel. My sympathies to all her family. With love and prayers, Barbara (Johnson) Redheffer

“ My dear sister, Pam, was such a strong person and took whatever came her way one day at a time. Even until the last moments of her life on earth, she was so at peace to begin her new life in heaven with her Lord and Savior. She can now walk, again. She has made me a stronger person, by seeing the peace that she had in the final days of her life on earth. May we all have that peace in our Lord Jesus Christ. Debbie Allen

Debbie, I was saddened to learn of Pam's passing. Even though we lost touch after college, I still have fond memories of Pam, you, and your Mom and Dad when we were in High School. It's good to know she led a happy and fulfilling life. My deepest condolences to you and her family...Barre Pannell

Debbie, I remember Pam well from her years in ADPi. I always thought she was as beautiful inside as she was on the outside. I was so saddened to see her obituary, but she seems to have led a fulfilling life of service in health care. Prayers for your family, Susan Palmer Pierce

Pam was in my class at ERHS. She was always pleasant with a big smile and had those big, beautiful eyes! Years later, we were neighbors on Hill Street in Ringgold. She loved her big Rottweilers, but her joy was being a wife and becoming a mother. My heartfelt condolences to Craig, Christi and family.

I worked with Pam at Hamilton home health and hospice. We became friends. We would have long talks. She was always laughing and making jokes. She loved her family. I really hate hearing this news. May God bless and comfort her family. Sending up prayers. I know she is smiling up in heaven.
