

Pamela Pou Scott

September 4, 1952 - December 18, 2025

Pamela Pou Scott, 73, of Cocoa, FL passed away on Thursday, December 18, 2025, in the Holmes Medical Center, Melbourne, FL. She was born on September 4, 1952, the eldest daughter of Fred Jennings and Edith Lake Pou. Pamela was a South Carolinian, living her first 16 years in her native state. She moved to Georgia in 1968 and was a 1970 graduate of Gordon Lee High School in Chickamauga, GA.

Pamela was an extremely hard worker. She worked for fifty plus years in the banking and social services fields. She helped staff emergency shelters in the state of Florida, providing safety, substance and accommodation during hurricanes and natural disasters. She was an avid reader, dedicated mother and devoted to her Jack Russell Terriers. As a military wife, she was a world traveler and welcomed family and friends to her home in Florida to view space launches from her backyard.

Pamela is survived by her husband, James Thomas Scott, Jr. Sunday, December 28, was Pam and Tom's 54th wedding anniversary. Also surviving are her sons Jonathan Scott and James Thomas (Richelle) Scott III. Surviving grandchildren are Lance, Brendan (Macey), Mackenzie (Reilly), Marissa and Dawson. Great grand children Bentley and Deliah survive. Her siblings, Charles (Karen) Pou and Lenora Pou as well as several nieces, nephews and cousins also survive.

Pam's energetic Jack Russell, Molly, also survives. Pamela's parents preceded her in death. She will be missed by many.

A special thank you to wonderful neighbors, David and Sandy Rintelmann, in Cocoa, FL.

Services will be at the Chattanooga National Cemetery, 1200 Bailey Ave, Chattanooga, TN at 12:30 pm on Tuesday, December 30, with Pastor Terry Burns officiating. In lieu of flowers, please consider memorial contributions to the Chickamauga Public Library, 306 Cove Rd, Chickamauga, GA or a donation to your local animal shelter.

Local arrangements are by Wilson Funeral Home – J Avery Bryan Chapel, Chickamauga, GA.
