“ I will never forget the fishfry's, fishing, sitting around listening to your stories, your jokes, and our favorite drink together, 7n7, at the Kingfisher in St Marks. Like many, I am truly blessed you came into my life and the memories I have with you are some of the greatest memories instilled in my heart. I miss and love you, Pat. Until I see you on the other side my friend, I will always cherish our time together. Jeff D.

“ Words cannot express how much Jeep & Becky Fahrubel loved and respected Pat & thoroughly enjoyed getting to spend time with the southern gentleman, your father, good friend and Jeep & Dugger's fishing buddy, especially during their retirement years. Jeep enjoyed meeting Pat for breakfast, eating at Bea's every chance they got and just talking, laughing and sharing stories, playing cards. May he rest in peace, cause I am sure he wasn't liking losing his independence and I know it's hard to watch someone you love suffer. You've been there for him, Freda & please let that be a comfort for you now. I light a yellow candle cause I used to tell him how good he looked in his yellow shirt, white jacket! He had a great smile and was a great friend.

Later on, we had the pleasure of renting out in the country on Hamilton Drive. I couldn't have asked for a better landlord anywhere. He will be missed.*”
