“ It is quite possible that there is no one on earth who is a sweeter soul than Pat. She was the epitome of all that is gracious and good in Christ's service. She loved Jesus and she loved Ted; and was committed fully to doing her best for both of them. Ted and Pat became our mentors in ministry when we were 22, newly married, and very immature. Pat was always patient and positive. She taught us hospitality with her wonderful home making and cooking much more than with her words. No man has been blessed with a better help meet and co-laborer in ministry than Ted. No doubt the impact of her life will resonate in the Kingdom for eternity.

“ Pat was a gentle and quiet person. I remember her saying that the Lord did not physically bless her with children, but he blessed her with so many more whom she taught and cared about always. She loved her Lord first, her husband secondly, and was an example of a Godly woman to those she came in contact with. Heaven has received a good and faithful servant. I thank God for her and Pastor and the many years of faithful service to our local church. We whom know the Lord will all be reunited together. It will be great to see her again. May God comfort her family and give them the peace that passes all understanding. God bless you. Robin Aebly
