“ She was one of a kind! I am the oldest niece so I remember her before she got married. she was a young teenager. She use to wear a poodle skirt and loved to dance. She would take me and go into the bathroom at her home and try to teach me how to dance. I remember when she did get married. She and Ray were so young. My grandmother (her mom) had to sign for them to marry they were so young. She was a great example of a military wife and mother. I have so many special memories of her and my Uncle Ray. Now she is at peace and rest and I pray her children find comfort in that. Love you Aunt Pat! Wilda

“ So thankful for God's Grace and Mercy and the time that was given for Pat and I to spend together. I know you're happy you are no longer confined to that body that no longer worked the way you wanted it to. You met Jesus yesterday didn't you? You are more alive now than you ever have been. You see, you hear things you have never seen or heard before. Enjoy your Lord and Savior Jesus, Father God, the holy Angels enjoy all your loved ones that are there. We here Pat, are still seeing things imperfectly as in a cloudy mirror, but you see everything with perfect clarity. You now know and understand completely the love God has always had for you. I love and miss you Pat. Julia

“ May you rest in peace with Pard. We always looked forward to our weekend cookouts and big meals that brought the families together. There will always be a couple of spaces we wish we could fill at the table - with maters and cayenne peppers of course. Love, John

“ My sincere condolences to the family for the loss of your dear loved one. May you find comfort and hope from the Bible promise at Isaiah 25:8 that in the near future God (Psalms 83:18) will eliminate forever, death and the sufferings that it brings. So draw close to God in prayers, lean on Him as you cope during this most difficult time.

I will miss you Pat, you were like a second mother. Peg and I lived for those great weekend cookouts and meals that always turned into a big family event - and of course lots of maters & cayenne peppers. May you and Ray rest in peace together, love John.
