Patrick is free as a bird . . . a Dove, symbol of love and peace. He was full of love, compassion & charity while on this earth. He is full of love and at peace in Heaven. This baby is out of pain and will never again be sick. His legs work now and he is probably trying out his new legs by dancing the streets of Heaven. He and his favorite comedian, Robin Williams, are probably doing a stand-up routine for the masses. He is happy and he is looking after his mom & dad. I never met you, Patrick, but I do love you.

“ Dear Patrick, my memories of you are what I have seen on television. Your smile was a rose in the garden of love and your spirit just can't be described. Your vision to start a fund raiser a few months ago was golden. I know you are now resting in sleep that just cannot be described; your pain and your worries are now erased. I pray your parents can be comforted but it will be difficult for them. All of those that witnessed your television appearance and saw your love through out your difficulty was awesome. I pray for your parents, Michael and Cynthia. I know the pain is terrible but they will accept and be happy that now you are no longer sick. Take care Patrick, your love, smile and goodness will not be forgotten. Our love to you and your family.

“ Our memories are of seeing Patrick play ball when our granddaughter, Reagan Kinsey , started playing with the Miracle League. Patrick always had a smile! Can only imagine the smile he has now. Running, jumping and flying high with Jesus! He touched many lives. We lost our 16 year old cousin to CF several years ago. He was like a son to us. This is such a difficult time for the ones left behind. We continue to pray for all of you. May God wrap you in His Loving arms and hold you till you meet Patrick again.
