“ Aw, sweet and beautiful girl. I remember the first time I met you. You were on the "green" team with me at Rossville Rec. No one could play ball like you could girl. I thought in my 12 year old mine you were a living and breathing Barbie doll. Beautiful, funny, and everything a friend could be. Maisy (like Daisy) I am praying for you and your Daddy and family. She was a treasure and I always loved talking and laughing with her. I'm sorry. There are no words to help but I am here Maisy.

Someone I'll never forget. Prayers for all her family, may God wrap his arms around you all at this most difficult time.*

“ Joey:

I'm sorry I couldn't make it in your time of need. I know there is nothing I can say to make it easier on the path your getting ready to take. I love you cousin, and I am here if you need me for anything. Just always remember each day is a gift and looking at it in that way may help a little.

“ We are greatly saddened to hear of Pattys passing. Your family and ours had always been so close throughout the years and it seemed we were one big family. After moving from the neighborhood it seems we lost touch, but never in my mind and heart. We've seen the good and the bad times together and no matter where we live, I will never forget the love my heart holds for each of you. My prayers are with all of you, that he gives you the comfort and the strength you need to bring you through these hard times that lay ahead. But let it be a comfort in knowing that we can see her, Billie, Doyle, Mickey, and little Mickey again that blessed day in Heaven. May God bless you all. With all our love.

“ Patty and her family were TT's next door neighbor for many many years and more like family than friends. Patty was always warm and friendly whenever or wherever we saw her. When we would run into her at the store she seemed as happy to see us as we were to see her, having to swap out the ice cream before leaving because we had stood there and talked for an hour before knowing it. She will truly be missed by everyone who knew her. Our deepest condolences to Joey, Amy, Maisey, Sandra, Donna and Tommy and to the rest of her family and friends. May God bless you with love comfort at this time of great sorrow. All of our love, TT, Mistie, Kara and Dawson Goins

“ I first met Patty when I was student teaching at Rossville...she was the feisty girl who you did not cross when it came to her friends. Later Patty and I played many softball games together. She played a mean left field and there were times I played right beside her in left center. So many conversations out there that I can't remember, but one thing I know, she and I were there to WIN. And neither one of us would put up with much nonsense. There were times I played first, and she would tell me to watch for it coming....and she threw many a player out from left field to first base with little effort. She trusted me that I would be there, and when we played the field together, we always knew we could rely on each other for back up....that's the kind of person she was too.....always there if you needed her and she would back you up. I saw her two days before she went to the hospital and she had that smile on her face as always....I will never forget Patty Price.
May God give the family the strength and comfort they need during this time.
