“ A great, wonderful, caring man who will be greatly missed. Bro. Hicks, gave so much to help the church, to help those who needed a little help. He always keep it quiet, when he helped others, for the most, let others do it for him, so people never knew who it was. Bro. Hicks, helped a lot of people, and those people never were able to truly thanked him, but he now has received his rewards in heaven, for his kind and loving heart. He will be missed but never forgotten. Truly a wonderful, and Godly man, who has touched so many.
