“ So many memories of you. Wonderful husband, father, and provider. Always working on cars in your spare time. Remembering when our family was taken in by yours to sit, talk, and sleep by a warm fire when our power went out. Taking a trip to Alabama during the Bicentennial year in your parents' camper. Me plugging the little fan into the wrong outlet and destroying it. Trips then to the wave pool and such. Too many more to name. Rest in peace dear friend, and may the Lord ease the sorrow of those left behind.
