“ My best memory of Pete was seeing how happy he made my sister he was quiet till he studied you for a while then he opened up and you could feel why she had fallen so for him. He felt like my family and my last memory of Pete we were sitting at the table just talking and with his soft spoken calm words said to me damn kids can't take them any where can we I looked at him with must of looked like what? He says you know your son just stole a golf cart wait a second you will see him fly around this corner.
Love you brother-in-law I love you and you will truly be missed
