“ I loved to stop by and share a jar of jelly, or jam with Mr Pete. One day I brought him some muscadines and he asked me about the elderberries..I did not know what they were. Mr. Pete told me that I could find them along the roadside and just about everywhere..so I set off to gather some elderberries for him. I had to get my brother William to go with me and show me what they were. It took 2 days and I finally got him a bucket of elderberries..I proudly took them over to him and he said "Well...here,s what you do...mix the juice with apple juice and make jelly "....So I made Mr. Pete a batch of elderberry/apple jelly..He sure had a big smile on his face when I took them over and said to me " It sure would be good on some homemade biscuits from scratch"...I loved Mr Pete but I can,t make biscuits..I did learn a valuable lesson about the many uses of elderberries...and I thought it was just a weed growing along the road..He was a great source of information about vegetable gardening also and he would remind me to wear a sunhat when I was gardening.. I will always remember and miss my friend.

“ I loved visiting Uncle Pete, he was always glad to see me and his mind was still sharp telling stories of years gone by. Looking at him was like looking at the face of my dad, although the brothers were over 20 yrs apart, you knew they were Magin's. I was born a Magin and am proud of my Magin family . Uncle Pete you are loved and will be missed. But, I know you are in a better place and are with your love, Aunt Fannie. Tell daddy hello and until we see each other again. I love you.
