“ *Jeri,
Last summer we had a great visit with you and phil on skype. I could tell that the two of you shared something very special together. So much love between the two of you that's the kind of love that lives on forever. I'm glad that you had this special love in your life and I am sad with you in your loss. Sending you big love and big hugs.

“ He was, "Cowboy," my childhood friend. We played tag while our parents said their goodbyes. He would run into the car, lock the door, then stick his tongue out at me, because I couldn't get to him. I've loved him my whole life.
