

Polly Anne "MeMaw" Wooten Wiley

July 4, 2025

Polly Anne "MeMaw" Wooten Wiley, age 78, of Chickamauga, Georgia, went home to be with the Lord on Friday, July 4, 2025.

Born in Chattanooga, Tennessee, Polly was the daughter of the late Burnam Euclaid Wooten and Mary Canzady Wright Wooten. A lifelong resident of the Chickamauga area, she was of the Baptist faith and known for her deep love for her family and community.

Polly retired in 2006 after more than 40 years of dedicated service at Synthetic Industries. She was a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. Polly had a heart for service and touched many lives through her warm hospitality—whether by cooking meals, making quilts, or offering a listening ear. She was an avid reader, a devoted Elvis fan, and never passed up a scoop of her favorite black walnut ice cream. In addition to her parents, Polly was preceded in death by her siblings, Mellie Voiles, Alfred Wooten, Nancy Goins, Thomas Wooten, James Wooten, Grover Wooten, Charles Wooten.

She is survived by her children, Teresa Wilson and Robert (Sherrie) Wiley Jr.; grandchildren, Gavin Leigh Wiley, Rachael Ann Wiley, and Katherine Canzady "Zady" Hall; great-grandchildren, Warren and Audrey; as well as several cherished nieces and nephews.

A private family celebration of Polly's life will be held at a later date.

Arrangements by Wilson Funeral Homes - Chickamauga Chapel.

“ My family is so grateful for Polly because she helped us so much when we were dealing with our parents when they were nearing death from old age. Polly would drive 40 miles to my parent's home in Apison, Tennessee to care for them, and she was an absolutely great caregiver! I appreciated her so much I just now googled her name, hoping to find she was doing well. I am so sad to read of her passing! I was a carpenter in those days, almost 30 years ago, and I traveled to her home to help her with a roof leak, and was impressed to see how far she drove daily to help my parents. She was a truly selfless person, always caring and kind, worked hard, and so trustworthy! I am sorry for your family's loss. I speak for the entire Blevins Family when I say we were lucky to have known her! Sincerely, Joel Blevins, Keith Georgia.
