“ I think of you often and the great times that we shared together. We never had a fuss or fight, just smiles and laughter. We did everything together and enjoyed what we did!!! I miss you not just yesterday but, today, tomorrow and forever.❤️. We always loved to listen to music and dance to our favorite songs, go to the lake and spread a blanket, as we sat under the trees and had lunch and talked. You are truly missed Randall and took a piece of my heart with you the day you left.💕 Rest In Peace my love until we meet again!!! RWB & SEBJ

“ Randall was married to my Mom's neighbor, Sandra James (Brogdon), and he loved to cook. He would have my Mom over for dinner, and I had the honor of enjoying one of his delicious entree's. He was such a nice guy, I really enjoyed his company, the few times I got to see him.

I later found out that Gwen, his sister, was his sister, who I went to elementary school with for a few years.

I am sorry for his untimely passing, hut so great to hear of his gift of salvation just a couple of weeks, prior to his death.

RIP my brother, and I will see you on the other side, just inside the Eastern Gate!

“ Imogene, Chad, Gwen, Jackie and Ann-You all know how much I love your family and there are no words to describe how I feel about losing Randall. He was the sweetest little boy and though I haven't seen him I a long time, we did stay in touch. I know he will be missed greatly and I hope you all can find some comfort in knowing that he is at peace. I love you all and am here if you need me.

“ Randall we have known one another for many many years & we all have went our separate ways to live our own lives. We were brought back into one another's lives for a reason & to be able to share the story of our life message with one another, God absolutely knows what he's doing, his plans are so detail & I'm thankful that we crossed paths again my friend & that you are is a genuine friend. You took your last breath here to immediately take your first into the presence of your lord & savior, you made the choice to receive Jesus Christ as your savior & I will you one day at heavens gate. Thank you for being the love of Michelle's life as I know she was yours.
