“Of all the wonderful and fond memories I have of my dear Aunt Ravey, I am most touched and most thankful for the season in which she introduced us all to our family's roots at The 2008 Crane Reunion at Crane Creek in Young Harris, Ga. She was radiant that day, and so in love with those mountains, that land, the beautiful scenery and the place which was once HOME. She wanted us all to feel it, and we did. I did, and I still do. That day, while all gathered beneath the hanging boughs of a fruited vineyard, our cups overflowed with love. The mountains spoke to all of us; we all partook of what made her keep coming back. She planted in my heart a priceless gift that day, and for that I will always be thankful. "Aunt Ravey, to know you was to love you, and to be loved by you, one truly felt loved all the way through. Thank you for touching my life and blessing it with your beautiful smile, your quiet grace and your Christian heart. I will always remember you with so much love."
