“ Raymond was a man with a very kind heart as a kid growing up right across the street Raymond and Jeremy they were always kind and never cared about how many kids were in the yard or in their house my fondest memory of Raymond was like he always had the same routine once he stepped out of his car when he returned home from work,as soon as he got half way across the yard he would pour out the last shot of coffee from his cup. My prayers are with you and your family, may you rest in peace and live eternaly in the house of our Lord.
