“ Dear Momma Richardson, Diedra and little sister Sonya and family,

I was so shocked and sadden to hear of Daddy Richardson passing. I have always felt you were another set of parents and Diedra and Sonya were like sisters. My heart and prayers go out to all of you and your family. I pray for God's comfort in your heart and sole for this whole that the loss of your husband, father and grandfather has left.

“ Raymond was a very dear friend for more than thirty years. We had a lot of good times together and worked side by side for many years. I owe him a lot, for many things I learned from him, not only in the construction trade.

I will always have a love for Raymond and his family.

I have comfort in knowing that Raymond is with his Lord Jesus.

My prayers are with his family, that they will have peace in this time of loss.
