“ I will always remember Reba for her sweet smile, which would make me, as well as anyone who was around her, smile. As I remember her growing up, she was the sweet girl that lived down the street that made an impression on everyone by greeting them with her sweet smile. I remember telling her, “ When I grow up, I hope I can always smile like you do”. As I remember her now, I have a smile on my face for having known her. Sweet rest, my Friend.

I pray for all the family that GOD will comfort your hearts and give you peace.
