“ I am devastated to hear of Becky's passing. She was an amazing loving wife, mother and true friend. We shared so much about our families, she was always such a joy to talk too and laugh with. She had a heart of gold and would do anything she could for anyone. Becky and I worked at Cigna for many many years. She was quite until you got to know her and then you were her friend for life. She loved her children and grandchildren more than live itself. During life challenges we cried together and prayed together. She has left a phenomenal impact on me and my husband life. She will be forever in my heart, and I thank GOD for allowing our paths to cross. To Larry, you were her soul mate, and she loved you more than words can express. Thank you for sharing her with us. GOD has her wrapped in HIS loving arms now. I'm thanking GOD for a beautiful and wonderful woman, a good and faithful servant who touch many lives. Lamentations 3:32 "But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies."
